I didn't write any response other than suggesting we follow up with Dubin/Zwirn. If that works, it gets you another 5 million, which, added to the "new" 5 million my clients are willing to put into the settlement, plus the 45 million priority claim plus the 18 million non-priority claim gets you to 73 million, which would be a perfectly reasonable settlement for you (and not terribly far from your last offer of 81 million). And, I can certainly support my client's putting the "new" 5 million into the settlement.

So, I'm happy to discuss this further with you, but should I now pursue with Susman as to whether we can get the Dubin/Zwirn piece added on?

Are you ok if Zwirn's lawyer and I contact Glenn's lawyer about the Corbin piece? It does present a means for resolving their differences while getting you more money.

sorry, as I said on the phone you made an argument to me based on an emotional rather than a strictly financial foundation. " both you and I should be unhappy" , the five million you offered was the same offered day one -through last week . In fact it came with the expression : " I would be happy to give you another five million or so. " . - If you would like , you could stop by my house on the way to work, anytime today is convenient. With regard the Dan/Corbin piece, I cannot be a part of that discussion.
