I think he needs to learn to work.. the agency is a social setting.. it is your call. but without a foundation and some sort of routine. (maybe a bit boring at first he will be in the same spot five years from now..). I will do as you wish,, but i am your friend , and owe you the responsiboity of giving you my best advice., . not the advice you would like to hear. but thoughtful caring advice based on many yhears of this stuff

He is coming tonight so I will talk to him in details.

I do not know re booking job – not sure how much it is an office job. Perhaps for him it would be better more to be in the social setting as this is his strength. From finding/scouting models or clients to pursue them to do/buy something.

What do you think?
