Subject: fashion week

Jeffrey,

May I ask you if you know someone In Paris who could take me to fashion week show tomorrow or wednesday.

Apparently, 3 of October is the last day and the biggest fashion show... I have never been to fashion week shows ever in my life and like any girl dream about going. Sounds funny, but I am not in modelling network at all, more lawyers - financiers

I went to one show actually in 1995, a small thing in Ukraine, when I was [REDACTED].... still remember how some cute model boy told me (I could not take my eyes from him all show and backstage..so in love) that he will marry me when I grow up, lol, was funny. now this guy is a famous pop singer in the Russian music band 'Ivanushki International'. [REDACTED] knows

Let me know please if you know someone here I may address

Thanks heaps

Big kiss. looking forward for you to come
