Yes, I spoke to Rossiya Airlines and they have economy seats available Thursday (same exact flight) but they are in a different 'class' and there will be a difference in price. The ticket was purchased through Expedia so I must speak to them about difference in fare. I am on hold now with Expedia...will be back to you soon!

There is one non-stop flight from Paris to St. Petersburg on Air France Wed. March 28 #2252 Departs Paris (SDG) at 10:20 am arrives St. Petersburg (LED) at 3:35 pm for $920.
(unfortunately the Rossiya Airlines flight booked through Expedia is non refundable and we will lose the 221.90 pounds all together)

Due to the large discrepancy in price and non-refundable ticket, please confirm you wish me to Change [REDACTED]'s flight to the non-stop Air France flight on Wednesday.
