Subject: INTELLICELL INVESTOR PRESENTATION & COCKTAIL PARTY

IntelliCell Biosciences will host a prospective investor presentation, tour and cocktail party in their offices next Wednesday, October 10th, early evening at 6:00 PM

The event will include a presentation by the CEO, Dr Steven Victor, and other key Intellicell employees as well as a tour of the new Flagship Facility. You will learn about the exciting opportunity to be part of the future of regenerative medicine.

This is an invitation only event and all attendees will need to RSVP (by email please to [REDACTED]). All attendees must be prospective accredited investors. Attendees may not bring guests unless the guests are co-investors or are pre-cleared as accredited.

The event will take place at their 460 Park Avenue, 17th Floor facility.

Please let me know if you believe you will have interest in attending.
