So am I. They can't be calling up people and threatening them if they talk to me.

Lisa is bent out of shape because of that mail I sent you (the unsolicited one about working together getting ugly) not because of the press. She is using that. Her job is HR and what is going on are the problems with Steve's reorg.

The press thing is just air cover for her bigger problems.

I still haven't done anything even remotely wrong. Here's an example of a story that comes from me talking to reporters. This is about Harvard.

Two other stories just didnt run.

The fact that they were sneaking around asking reporters if they had contact with me seems crazy. Not to mention fairly salacious if word got out (given no context of a gag order).

Will we get there today?
