Hi Leslie,

Attached is the beginning of several pieces of content for you. I will post them on jeffrey's Foundation blog and public profiles, including Facebook, twitter etc. Could you post them everywhere else?

I'll be send you some articles tomorrow or tonight.

- any luck of getting the mug shot pushed down? It's still the 1st image on google. I got the one pushed down on the wiki site. but they won't take it off entirely. Got them to remove money laundering though, which was libel.
- can you tweak the Jeffrey Epstein Foundation blog so that it comes up on the first page? its: www.jeffreyepsteinfoundation.com The user and password are on the excel that I sent you.

will call you later. Thanks,
