I will pass by. I have a meeting at the congress center at 10:45 that I can't miss.

Meeting later in day Regina (at 1:30). Will try to get her out of the conference center.

Will keep you posted,

B

I have been carefully thinking and considering what we recently discussed re my financial issues; therefore, the delay in providing you with a candidate solution. I believe I have crafted one that meets all your needs that you outlined in our conversation. i.e. 1. The paramount concern - that it should be fair 2. it should take as little of my personal time as possible as you did not want any transaction to impinge my the job, that you kindly described as invaluable. 3 It should not in any way penalize you financially, even though, in your words, any return would still only amount to no more than a rounding error.

I propose that you invest in a fund that we agree, you will receive the same 3% return (a Larson return) that you suggested you would have had otherwise. I would for the period of my employment receive the spread, if any, above that. I assume an investment of between 30 and forty million dollars, and a hopeful of around 10%. -meaningful to me and greatly appreciated.

I believe that this is a very fair arrangement that would allow me to continue to provide you with 100% of my dedication and focus, while being adequately compensated for that dedication. I am sure you are aware how very grateful I am for our friendship and hope you realize how much I appreciate you taking the time to address this, Thanks very much, in advance.

Just small changes – and I included a paragraph from your previous email.

THANK YOU

you will invest in a fund that I have chosen (and you subsequently approved) , you will receive the same 3 % that you suggested you would receive otherwise, and I would for the period of my employment receive the spread above that,. I assume and investment of between 30 and forty million dollars. , and its returning hopefully around 10%. in your words , a mere rounding error for you , but extremely meaningful to me and greatly appreciated. This will take very little of my time, as not to interfere with my responsibilities, and will return to you the same amounts as you had suggested you would receive otherwise.

I believe that this fair arrangement would allow me to continue to provide you with 100% of my dedication and focus. I am sure you are aware that I am very grateful for our friendship and hope your realize how much I appreciate you taking the time to deal with this.. Thanks in advance.

I took your directive to heart and therefore delayed providing you this candidate solution to my financial issues . I waited until I could craft one that I belived matched all the needs you outlined in our conversation. i.e. 1. and paramount - It should be fair 2. it should take as little of my personal time as possible as you did not want any transaction to impinge on the job i was doing for you that you described as invaluable.3 It should not in any way penalize you financailly, even though , in your words, it would amount to no more than a rounding error. I believe that this fair arrangement would allow me to continue to provide you with 100% of my dedication and focus. I m sure you are aware that I am very grateful for our friendship and hope your realize how much i appreciate you taking the time to deal with this.. Thanks in advance.
