The Details

If you've spent the last 40 nights cooped up in your apartment, wearing PJs, eating noodles, and catching up on daytime soaps, perhaps it's time you freshen up and step outside. Let's get social at The Lexington Social with today's deal: Pay $15 for $30 worth of food and non-alcoholic bevvies at this tucked-away tapas bar in Manhattan's East Harlem.

Chef Saul Montiel has cultivated an intimate dining nook that features authentic Mediterranean fare. Among the menu favorites are its Sicilian meatballs, ricotta and spinach dumplings, mushroom orecchiette, and special fish ceviche. Snag this deal, fill up your Metro card, and hop on the 6 train to 103rd Street and see for yourself.
