Bella can you send me the account info before you leave so I can get things done between now and monday? I will not use without being authorized to do so in writing from Jeffrey. If not I understand and hopefully we can try again monday.

Net terms are not necessary. If they want to pay as we go through each transaction that is fine we just need the proper credit card information. Standard stuff. Billing address company name card number expiration date and security code.

Best,
Matt Parisi
