Jeffrey,

Just talked to Mike. That Wexler stuff was removed immediately after you mentioned it last week just like I said. You have no "cleared and refreshed" your cache and browser and so you are seeing "old" results. This is what happens too when you do google searches and anything else, and why you may not be actually seeing progress. You actually have to clear the cache, refresh the browser, quit the browser, and restart, and then, you see it is gone. I just checked.

Just got back from a very successful trip in Paris. Hope all is well.

Cheers,
me
