wow, great interior photos find,. that is what I had in mind, on what you where think of a finished product. I am waiting for Gary at the toy store to call me back and express my disappointment in his pricing,. I know they will do a good job, but overpriced at this point,.I explained Gary, we are not re-covering the headliner, just wood ledges below,.

I'll check in Georgia,,the interior shop in UK would be higher priced according to Craig Laminim, but that is his own opinion and he's not an interior expert, personally would like it completed in USA to have some sort of control during the process.

Dear Larry,

To re-do your Bell 430 with the Bentley style interior provided, including the paint stripes, the seat change and EVERYTHING else you requested we would be right at $200,000 dollars.

The 9 extra hides which you have offered will NOT help, as we would require 9 hides before we even made it to the 6 seats. You do not want to run the risk of the hides not matching if you try to use a different die lot either.

If we can firm things up quickly and order the materials now, in advance, we will be able to turn it around in 30 days or less. If you want to go forward I will send someone to Palm Beach with some leather and wood samples to match up the Bentley.

Let me know your thoughts after your meeting with Jeffrey.
