Lesley,

Please forward the following message to Jeffrey Epstein:

Dear Jeffrey,

As we discussed, my piece on Prince Andrew, Duke of York, is scheduled to appear in the August issue of Vanity Fair, which will hit the newsstands on or around July 10th.

As promised, I'm getting back to you to check some facts.

1. There have been newspaper reports that the Duke of York arranged for you to give Sarah Ferguson £15,000 ($24,500) to help retire her debts. I have a source who claims to know that Sarah Ferguson actually received hundreds of thousands of dollars from you. Exactly how much money has Sarah Ferguson received from you? And how were the payments made?

2. The Mail on Sunday in Britain obtained an interview with a young woman named [REDACTED], who claimed that you trained her as an underage prostitute and flew her to London in 2001, when she was 17 years old, for the purpose of spending time alone with Prince Andrew. The newspaper printed a photograph of Prince Andrew with his arm around [REDACTED] bare midriff. [REDACTED] is quoted as saying that you took that photograph. Did you take the photograph? And would you please comment on [REDACTED] statements.

PERHAPS YOU CAN SAY HERE THAT SHE WAS 17 WHEN YOU MET HER AND THAT SHE HAD HAD A PRIOR [REDACTED] WHICH WAS THOROWN OUT BECAUSE SHE WAS AN UNRELIABLE WITNESS + HER MUM WAS WORRIED SHE WAS INTO WHICHCRAFT AND THAT SHE FLED THE COUNTRY TO AVOID A [REDACTED].

3. When I asked a Buckingham Palace spokesman about a photograph of you and Prince Andrew, which was taken in New York's Central Park last December, the spokesman told me, "Don't expect to see a photo of [Prince Andrew and Jeffrey Epstein] together." I asked the spokesman: "Does that mean that Andrew has broken off all contact with Epstein?" The spokesman replied: "Hereinafter, we won't see a photo." I took this exchange to leave open the possibility that Andrew is still loyal to you and intends to carry on his friendship with you. Have you continued to be in touch with Prince Andrew? Have you met with him since last December? Do you have plans to meet with him in the future?

That's all for now. I do appreciate your cooperation and hope to hear from you soon.
