Subject: Storm Watch

Jeffrey

with the present storm activity in the atlantic we will be battening done the hatches, palm trees, storm shutters etc, Monday

Nanny Cay Marine have just requested that the Big N is there by 7am tomorrow morning, they intend to close down by 12 noon Monday, at this time.

Forecast indicates Tues/Wed when we will feel the effects of the present TD

Would it be possible to postpone Mr Cortez until next week, thank you
