Dear Karyna,

I have received a copy of your admission letter and spoken with Sandy Garcia to confirm you have been accepted to the DDS program at CU for the fall of 2012. Your program is for 3 years, verses 4 years, based on the fact that you have received some transfer credits from your previous study in the U.S.

I waited for your friend to arrive yesterday, but did not hear from him/her. I will be out of the office today after 3:50. If your friend wants to drop off all the information you can provide regarding your request for reinstatement I will begin to review what is presented to me. I will need to talk with you over the phone or in person. I will also need to speak with the staff at international office at your previous school.

Could you please tell me where you most recently studied in the U.S.?

Please call me at [REDACTED] before 11:00 am if possible. Please also email your phone number to me so that I can contact you if I miss your call. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Bonnie

Dear Ms Garner,
Thank you for your kind assistance. As you are probably already aware, I am requesting a new I-20, so as to enable me to apply for a reinstatement of my former F-1 visa status. I have been told that you need to see evidence of my current status. I am out of town and can fly back for the day if you so require. However, in the interim I have arranged for someone to bring to you on Wednesday the evidence you have requested. The fact is that I have applied for asylum and await a hearing, I am told this will happen in late 2013 at the earliest. I will have delivered to you the I-589 (asylum application) receipt from Immigration, as well as a copy of my passport and my former F-1 visa. If you would like to set a time to speak, and would email me same, I will call you at any time of your choosing tomorrow, and if you need any additional documents, they can be provided immediately. I sincerely would like to thank you in advance for your attention. Yours truly Karyna.
