Jeffrey,

Well it turns out that this guy Rasheem works for Pristine Environmental Services and his boss called me and told me him that he mentioned it to him that I have contacted but never mentioned a meeting so his boss knew nothing about it and thinks that he was trying to get the work for himself. Brian Roberts owns this company and has been in business for 1 year but has lived all his life in ST. Thomas and has been in construction for a long time.

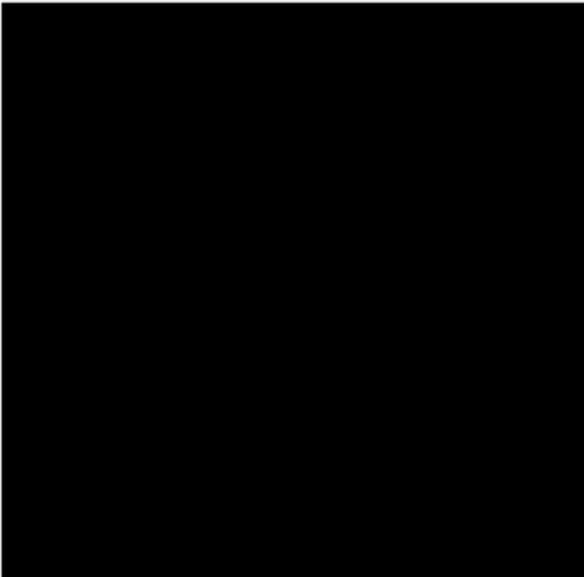

He apologized for the miscommunication and wanted to know if you would give him the opportunity to bid on this work.

Thank you
