Hey Jeffery,

let me know when you have time and if you'd like to talk about the agency and what I should do. I had hesitation at first but I am growing to like it more and more. I am being patient and taking it day by day for the next month or so. I assume they think I am interning here. No one discussed any position with me or what I would be doing in the future. neither did anyone discuss money or salary. I have been working every day since March 20th.

My concern is that I'll be stuck doing a secretary job and have nothing creative to do. I've been having fun and learning a lot but most of what I do is simple secretary work and I am more into creative things.

I can explain to you when we speak. Do not get me wrong, I like the guys here and been having fun and learning great things but I really do not know where this is going and what they think here. I am being patient and will continue day by day but at some point I do need to travel and see boris more often. We can not be in a relationship and see each other once every other month. I would love to figure some thing out where I can work with Jean Luc in and out of the office and be a bit more flexible - and at the same time tie it up with some styling work as well.

I think it's better to chat.. Let me know when you're free and will call you!

Hope you are well and having fun on the island!! Happy passover!! ;-))

Thank you for every thing of course.
Sam

Sam – can you please call/send email Jeffrey?

Jeffrey is curious how do you like your new job?

Or go to see him when he is back in NYC.
