Title: Re: Mom

I just got to London this morning. Saw mother last night. Doctors have started morphine and shots to slow her heart down. She is alert and a bit confused and calm. She will live as long as she eats and drinks. If and when she has another brain seizure she has a living will that says do resitate.
Today my sister in law said she is just sleeping. I think they drug them and they starve to death. I know nothing.

I am back Monday night. Going to all the Bafta related events.
How long are you in NYC. Peg
