hi jeffrey,

..i got the pictures you sent me for palm beach.. i think that would look good on that wall in the garden..its going to take some time to do that but i can do it.

tomorrow i will finish the cillax bathroom.. i have to paint the corals..

i did those walls at the pool cabana matching the stones.. you probably saw that, ..then i was thinking at those speakers.. and i think would not be good if i paint the front side of the speakers because they have that screen and paint might fill the holes in the screen..

i was thinking maybe the pool cabana would have some fake windowwith wood blinds and having the speakers in the back of the window.. so you wouldnt see the speakers.. or on the roof..could be like small windows facing the pool.. and in the window having the speakers..,it is just an idea..
