Sir,

The MoS have now come back to us and say they will make no reference to any sexual impropriety. This is a good start. But we need to know what they will run instead. If it's simply that you met this woman, well, frankly...!

It would also seem she has a criminal record in the states. I have given her DoB and social security number for investigation with Chris the on duty ppo.

I've just had a short conversation with ghislaine and she says [REDACTED] is a lying so and so, paraphrasing, but this is consistent with what JE says.

If this comes to the crunch we must have a statement ready for tomorrow or tonight that makes it perfectly clear our displeasure with the MoS for not listening and a really forceful denial.

For the Attention of Ed Perkins
Deputy Press Secretary to The Queen and
Press Secretary to The Duke of York
Saturday 26 February 2011.

Dear Ed,

Strictly Private:

I have offered several times to show you the photograph we have in our possession and you have declined to view the picture. I see from your latest email that you believe this photograph of The Duke of York and [REDACTED] would be helpful for identification purposes.

If you can give me an undertaking this picture will be used by you for identification purposes only and not shown to any person other than The Duke of York, I am able to confirm that I can send you an email of the photograph.

Please let me know how you would like to proceed.

Yours Sincerely,

Sian James
