pretty cool to use airplane wireless thinking about you

since we haven't spoken...here's what's up lately...

stuff feels like heating up around product release end of month

[REDACTED] told [REDACTED] he was going to fire him after the product was released - essentially said "it is my prerogative to..."

[REDACTED] says [REDACTED] can't fire him.

so [REDACTED] is at a point where he could quit pre-release in a huff or release the product and walk away.

suspect there will be some sort of action in the next month.

was at [REDACTED] today and I was offered a job at [REDACTED] which is their [REDACTED] institution. nice people, work is pretty messy. all it does is lead deeper into the world of development. could do some learning about private sector. not sure i want to.

also thought maybe i could work at [REDACTED] my brain knows that philanthropy isn't right for me yet somehow keeps defaulting there.

what else...big news on the new team/strategy i am working on (with a team of [REDACTED] ugh) we meet with [REDACTED] on the 31st of october.
