

I returned from a run to find the below. I am stunned. They have decided not to allow you to proceed with your application. Please see email from Zumwalt below. I have a call into Hunt to find out what happened and see if the decision is appealable.

Apparently my ability to read people was off this morning as I did not have a sense from any of the Board members that I spoke to that they would summarily dismiss the application. Hunt has been candid with me throughout the process and i'm hoping he will continue to do be so forthcoming.

I would prefer at this time to work through normal channels as we figure out what our options are.

Let's see if we have any options in the normal course of business to get the decision reviewed if that is the direction we want to go. Otherwise I think we need to step back and reevaluate if it is a good time to take FII to the EDC for approval. It will be less costly to you in the long run as you will not have to deal with the quid pro quo.

CONFIDENTIAL

Erika:

During today's meeting of the RTPark Board of Directors, in connection with the background investigation undertaken with respect to Mr. Epstein, the question the Board considered was "would the Board be amenable to an application from Mr. Epstein in light of the results of the background investigation?" The answer of the Board was "no." If you have any questions I would encourage you to contact RTPark counsel, as I do not have the Board's authority to discuss the matter further.

I appreciate your coming to the Board meeting and I look forward to future opportunities to be of service to your clients.

David Z.
