Subject: Sorry to miss you next week but I presume the Lipkin meeting is more important to you anyway

Sorry you can't make the lunch. Hope the reason is a happy one.

Can't help but ask, though, whether you have any hope of getting an answer from your friend at Templeton. As I recall, they have to spend the money this year and if they choose to support us, we can make a big deal of it at our mega-event on Nov. 14: "Science & the City."

So hoping that you are OK, can you advance the ball with your friend?

Best, Ellis
