I'm having a big problem regarding my visa situation in Canada. My visa expired in December, my lawyer were working on renewing it...i was suppose to stay in Canada during that period unless i had a emergency. I did have a professional emergency and i left the country 2 weeks ago. When i got back yesterday they refuse my entree and are requesting for me to leave Canada today otherwise they will arrest me. Someone in my lawyer camp messed up my request and didn't tell them i had to leave for emergency (i had all the proof). Anyway today i'm going back to the airport to be escorted back to France. This situation, a part from the fact that it is very hard personally , is going to put in danger my compagny and my contacts here. I'm lost and don't know what to do. I know Jeffrey has a million other things more important to take care of but i was wondering if there is anything he could do to help me. I'm reachable on my cell [REDACTED] til 1:30pm time i have to present myself to the authorities. Thanks a lot I'm very very sorry to disturb you.
