Eva,

Well its a FAR, FAR better thing to do I think to pursue medicine. Please tell her I wish I had! :)

I'm also sorry if perhaps Susan was to harsh or strident, she doesn't work for me except on a project by project basis so I can't control her manner. I had always thought she was good from feedback of others and working with her, but you never know.

If Celina has any 2nd thoughts, and wants to give it another try, please let me know and we can venture down a different path.

Maya is gorgeous and when I'm casting in that age range, I will certainly see her. If you need any help finding an acting coach or class in New York for her, please let me know.

Again...I'm very sorry if Susan wasn't on the money and I'm happy to talk to Celina next week to let her know that as well.

I will call you on Monday. Please have a wonderful weekend.

Best,
Barry J

Dear Barry,

Celina went to meet with Susan yesterday and I think it was a very good session because afterwards Celina told me that she has decided that acting is probably not for her. She is more interested in medicine... :) So, for the moment, the actress-bug is gone. She is in the middle of studying for her SAT's this summer so she will focus on that for the rest of the week. I have told Susan, and I'm very thankful to both of you for accommodating and helping Celina.

I do, however, have a ten year old that's dying to be actress and move to Hollywood, so please keep her in mind. Her name is Maya, and she loves to sing, dance, and act! See her pictures attached.

Have a great week.

Thank you so much,

Eva
