i did explain our painters not familiar with floor product, Kerri was the one who sourced it and knows how to apply it i didnt want any screw ups also, our painters are doing interior work of rest rooms and kitchen bath and should be finished mid next week the expansion joint has just been completed yesterday, it needs to cure for a few days Kerri in the mean time has painted the big hangar doors, roll up door and preparing floor for paint everything should be completed by 27th please note floor material will need to cure for 1 week after final application i did try to meet the 20th deadline.

Quote for completion of Hangar

Description of Work

Amount

Hangar Doors

Apply 1 coat of primer and 2 coats of finish on interior and exterior of doors

$600.00

Concrete Floor

Remove the remaining 20% of old epoxy off of the concrete with a diamond grinder and small grinders w/cup wheels and diamond blades. Patch obvious bad spots on the floor with a cement product, clean and paint the two cistern hatches on each end of the slab, pressure wash thoroughly removing all dirt and grease and prepare surface for applying the finish product.

Apply "Rexthane" High Gloss epoxy (white). This product is designed for Hangar floors, it is leveling and extremely durable.

I will apply 2 coats of the finish product to the floor.

Floor Total: $3,500.00

TOTAL AMOUNT

Down Payment Required

Balance Due

This quote is for labor only. All materials and additional equipment will be the responsibility of Little Saint James.

Any extra work other than that quoted above will be discussed with the appropriate person(s) and the charge will be agreed upon in writing before the work is started.
