

"good job as copilot"? I like flying so I do it for pleasure, but I was under the impression that after 10 years, we were Friends. Last few times you asked me to fly, you were quite pleasant, I stayed on the island and we shared a bed. So I am at a loss trying to understand how you go from normal to all of a sudden treating me like a stranger, not even allowing me in the apartment and then getting off the plane without so much as a thank you, any notice or explanation? I'm not even emotional, I just don't get it. I let it slide when you did nothing for my birthday and cancelled my plans last minute because it's not that important and I have no energy to deal with new JE disappointments, but I'm confused now because this treatment is so weird and unwarranted. I thought we were over that..

---

From: Jeffrey Epstein <jeevacation@gmail.com>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Wednesday, March 27, 2013 5:12 AM
Subject: Re:

any insult you feel or felt i assure you was completely unintentional. I am very sorry if I have offended you, in any way, you did a very good job as co pilot. that being said i want to avoid doing it again so lets just meet at the plane on sunday wheels up at 4. If for some reason you again choose not to finish the trip please tell larry with enough time to substiutie. thanks .

On Wed, Mar 27, 2013 at 1:46 AM, [REDACTED] wrote:

Am I? You were cold, rude and very unfriendly for no apparent reason..I don't understand why. I am not aware of doing anything to cause that shift and I don't know what to think or what to expect...

>Flight from Slovakia on Saturday arrives at 9am.

>
>
>
>
>

> From: Jeffrey Epstein <jeevacation@gmail.com>

>To: [REDACTED]
>Sent: Tuesday, March 26, 2013 11:13 AM
>Subject:

>
>
>what are you travel plans, you are welcome here on sat. . if you prefer
>
>

>
--599881721-1544335537-1364364312"520
Content-Type: text/html; charset 59-1
Content-Transfer-Encoding: quoted-printable