Subject: Pink Panther diamond,./ B727

can you call me if your available?

here is what I know:

- Gary told the buyer the Boeing is worth 10M, and buyer accepts that number,. (strange) my email description of the Boeing I sent indicated 23M was spent on the aircraft with upgrades.
- the buyer says his diamond is worth 15M.
- buy wants us to give him the Boeing + 3M
- Morris has seen and held the diamond in person in Geneva,. which is current location of the diamond in a Vault.
- buyer wants to view the Boeing on Wednesday next week if you agree to deal.
- We can have your choice of Diamond appraise the diamond on sight in Geneva.
- Gary recommended we sell Diamond at Christy's auction with reserve of 8M if this is a real deal,.
what should we do?

email traffic between buyer and Gary,.
Larry,

Please see below. If we can confirm the Boeing is not grounded and out of service for Europe next year due to noise emissions, he is ready to go forward.

Please read his comments below, discuss with Jeffrey and let me know.

Pls answers my questions below. I am keen to do a deal not less than 3m usd difference in the pocket. If you guys keen ,I can fly up with pilot Wednesday ,check it out with engineer and close this week still in London.

The seller will love the pink I am certain. Once we agree the condition, we hand over the pink forthwith in Europe after I get approval from the board which shouldn't be an issue I believe.

Pls advise as I need to make travel arrangements

Is it true that the plane will be out of service at next year end and won't make parts for it. That the plane won't be able to fly in europe due to emissions issues and noise abatement

thx
Larry
