

I guess you would recommend me to attend? Too many Ukrainians will be there.

I do think that you should attend Davos. I agree there is a lot of wasted time and J/Os there but there are some interesting mtgs/people as well.

B

---

From: Victor Pinchuk Foundation [mailto: [REDACTED]]
Sent: Tuesday, December 07, 2010 11:19 AM
To: Boris Nikolic (bgC3)
Subject: 7th Davos Ukrainian Lunch of the Victor Pinchuk Foundation, January 28, 2011

Victor Pinchuk Foundation Events in Davos 2011

Dear Boris Nikolic,

It is our pleasure to invite you to the 7th Davos Ukrainian Lunch on Friday, January 28, 2011, 12:30-14:00. at Morosani Schweizerhof Hotel, Promenade 50, Davos.

The Lunch will be held in honor of the President of Ukraine, H.E. Viktor Yanukovich and the President of Poland, H.E. Bronislaw Komorowski. The Presidents will debate how to kick-start modernization by using the UEFA EURO 2012 championship as a catalyst, and how to bring Ukraine and Poland closer together and foster Ukraine's European integration.

The Ukrainian Lunch is the most prominent annual international gathering outside Ukraine to debate Ukraine's challenges and prospects. Its speakers have included, among others, Carl Bildt, Thomas Friedman, Aleksander Kwasniewski, Chris Patten, George Soros, and Viktor Yanukovich.

We look forward to welcoming you in Davos!

Sincerely yours,

Victor Pinchuk Foundation

Please register here: <http://vpf-davos.ennect.com/events/2011/register>

---

For more information visit the Victor Pinchuk Foundation Events in Davos 2011 website

You may unsubscribe here.

Powered by ennect.