I would like our relationship to be like last year, in august - october. We were just having fun together: you taught me life in a certain way, explained how you see the world, taught me how to love my body and be open about sex.... I talked to you about my ambitions, goals, fears, listened to your opinions and completely opened my heart and soul to you. I loved coming over and staying with you, just to have you around fulfilled me with some power, energy, confidence...

I presented you [REDACTED], french girl just because you wanted to and it was fun for me to see their reactions and your interactions..

But then you told me to draft this contract where I give you smth in exchange of smth....and it started, you were always talking like "i ll do it, if you present me girls" ... Present me girls....come with your friends...etc

It made me think that you are not interested anymore in me, in my personality which suffered in a certain way, that you are bored with our Nabokov-Lolita relations ^^ and just need people in order to have more people, to enlarge your Girls army...
