no, with this head liner we should try to match the color. , the wood is fine and the aft facing seat should be just one bench

Bell 430 interior questions: color in photos appears accurate,.

See photo below of leather you selected compared to existing head liner color: you had requested the aft and fwd bulk head to be covered in leather, using same leather as seats,.is this OK?

photo below shows the fwd facing seats, there is a small tan drawer under the credenza (about 4" tall), we are trying to keep the drawer and shorten it, so it will not interfere with leg room and locate the Satilight Phone in this drawer, or would you prefer the SatPhone location in the fold down arm rest? if possible?

This photo below shows the Aft facing seats, do you wish to have similar seat design to copy the Bentley seats? (meaning three individual seats like photo? or a design like GII seat at table? These aft facing seats are narrow, only 16", compared to the 18" in your fwd facing VIP seats,.

GII seat design, possible for aft facing seat design?
