the reason steve asked brad "are we done yet" is because of the announcement I am speaking at the conference. Steve thinks he got brad to add the gag order stuff and so assumes if there is an agreement before the conference I can't talk about steve.

Brad knows all of this and so made sure to tell steve "not to worry". Brad is working to make the problem of me go away.

How did you hear about this? :-)

This is all amazing to me -- you'd think I did some crimes or something and not saved the company several times.
