I am in England and continuing with the same project. It has been a long time in the making and I'm getting older in the process! It has certainly not been easy but we are not giving up...the good times make it all worthwhile. That aside all well and we hope to make it to the US at some point this year.

where are you and what are you up to?

Dear Jeffrey,

Wishing you a very very Happy Birthday! I hope that you have a fun day and a great year ahead.

I often think of you and wonder how you are. It would be nice to hear your news when you get a chance. I am fine and optimistic that 2011 will be a good year!

Take care and all the best,
