Jeffrey,
I have located a Projector repair center in Georgia that is familiar with Sony Quallia,. Initial cost to calibrate and adjust settings $895.00 flat fee, if any discrepancies are found, will be quoted and additional,.
I hesitate to send to this company, until I hear back from Sony on where they recommend to send quallia,.

Nick has spoken to Sony Tech support that deals with the Quallia, There exact words according to Nick, where the same recommendation that Kevin Law's guy Neil Greeberg at Audio Interiors told me,.
Sony said not to invest any money in the Quallia since its out dated technology, , cheaper brighter projectors are currently available for a 1/4 of the cost of the Quillia,. and repair cost from Sony is high,.
I sent Rob (head Tech support for Sony, and Quiallia expert) an email, and asked where we should send the projector to be calibrated, serviced and cost,.

From Nick:
Larry, this email is for Rob, he is the main Qualia projector Tech support guru. He is the guy to ask about sony qualia service questions I spoke with Tim who is Rob's counter partner and told me for you to email him your request.
