I was thinking about your comments on Scott
To get rid of him we need to get the entire irr. system on a plan,with a manual
I called Jeff Potts (landmarks golf designer) who I brought to LSJ a year ago, to see if he is able to do us a complete plan where we could bring a new player in and not be totally lost.
He says that is doable,and will get back to me the first of the week with a idea on cost.
