Ha! Yes, I've finished one script and am busy scheming about the next, which will not be funny and more ambitious. It is fun and doesn't feel like work, even though it requires quite a bit. I've stopped listening to all the bombastic Jewish baby boomers (my father and his ilk) and will just do what I enjoy. (it has taken me 31 years to stop) I have abandoned the idea of trying to be 'smart' or decorating myself with some sort of title. I want to be a professional ROUÉ! I am in Germany now to visit my long-suffering mother, but coming back to the US in a day. I've made too many plans to squeeze in the island, but I hope to see you soon.

Give my best to your pretty phalanx.
