Procedures are only done on Mondays and Wednesday;s...every so often they might have a space for a Friday available but it does not appear Fri. 28th will work...Is there a Mon or a Wed. in Oct. you would be available? (12th, 17th, 19th, 24th, 26th, 31st) I am told Friday 14th happens to have an opening...

Please advise...

Reminder: I have made you a consultation appointment with Dr. Krumholtz for Fri. Oct. 7th at 11:15 and an appt for a 'procedure' on the first available date they have which is 8:30am on Wed. Oct. 12th. They are asking if these appointments will work, what kind of procedure you hope to have, if you have symptoms or you simply want a routine procedure done....please advise.
