Great to see you yesterday!

I got my bank account and all that done and organized today!

The attached picture is the document of all of my details

Can you please forward this to Jeffrey and let Him know that it's all done now I'm waiting for the card they said I will have it in 7 business days! (They gave me a temporarily now)

To make it extra clear I might as well write all details down here why not :)

Thank you and see you when Jeffrey's back in NYC!

Have a great day
