def. will not leave welcome note...yes, my thoughts and prayers are with [REDACTED]. I can't stop thinking about her...I visited her last week in the hospital and we chatted for over 2.5 hours...went thru all the emotions and just let her talk...her biggest concern is her work...making sure Jeffrey is taken care of, etc...she told me she wants to retire when she is 68...she is 62 now...if you could stop by and say hello you would make her day i'm sure...ugh...

[REDACTED] has been diagnosed with [REDACTED] [REDACTED]...it was sudden and she is in a lot of pain...she starts chemo tomorrow...she is weak, nauseous and dizzy...I just feel terrible for her. We have her staying in 10B so she can be close to the hospital for treatment...
