that would be SO great...yes:

Presbyterian Hospital

6th between York and FDR...I walked there from the subway stop at 68th and Lex

She is in 5 Central Room 228

When you go in the front door lobby just stop and ask the person at the little stand there how to get to her room... You will take the G elevators and go to 5th floor and then find room 228...but they can direct you more...

Oh Rich!! I was totally thinking I must contact you...I feel so so terrible for Lyn. I went and visited her yesterday and she was surprisingly upbeat...of course we went through the gamete of emotions, but we had a really nice visit. So sweet of you to reach out. I think Lyn will be as good as she can be when you are away...I'm sure she would love to see you if you happen to be in the city at some point....will keep in touch. Enjoy your London vacation...
