Hi [REDACTED],

Thank you so much for Jeffrey's payment for Juliya to take the upcoming Thai Massage - Side Lying, Inverted & Seated Positions workshop. The day after that course ends there is a final day of review and refinement after which students get Basic Certification. That review course is called Putting It All Together - Refinement. I hope Jeffrey, will consider paying for that also, so that Juliya can complete the basic training. The early registration deadline for that training is May 30th. Thanks in advance.

Dear Jeffrey,

Thank you for supporting [REDACTED] Thai Massage training. There is another basic training coming up and the early registration deadline for it is May 15th. Here's a link to the site: <https://thaimassageSacredBodywork.com/thai-massage-workshops/>
I hope you will be able to support her taking this training and the Putting It All Together - Refinement training as if she completes these two workshops in June she will receive basic certification. There is also an advanced training this summer which I hope [REDACTED] can come to.

Warmly,

Ananda
