Good Afternoon -

I wanted to touch base with you to let you know that we are working on finalizing the beginning to our historical fiction stories. Tonight's homework is to type and share with me their second draft beginning of their story. These beginnings should include a "hook" character development and "show don't tell setting". I am reaching out because your student may be a bit behind.

For reading this week, there is no TFK but an extended jot is due on Thursday. They should have a handout with an attached grading rubric for reference. Finally, 30 minutes of reading each night with jots is required.

Thanks for your continued support.

Fondly,
