This may fit better with Ty's schedule

Ike,

We still have the basketball bug and I wanted to see if we could continue playing a bit. I was looking into Brewster on Friday nights. Something like 8 games no practices once the season starts. I think with something limited and casual we may be able to attract some Spring athletes. I am looking at some legitimate coaches. What do you think?

I check the lax schedule and it seems not to conflict, neither does baseball...you would know better. Is there another time of the weekend that would most likely not conflict?

I am truly trying to make this a once a week, B league type of things so the boys can keep a ball in their hands and have fun.

Brian
