I asked him about that project and he said he merely needed to read!? I thought he may have more to do with it but ...I saw the page that showed how many chapters he was to read each day and I know he brought the book home. Does not make me happy he just completely decided to not work on his project.

Yes for sure we must speak. Tuesday would be great for me. Does it work for you? Any time is good. I'm sure ike will want to be on the call as well

Thanks for letting me know

Lesley

Wednesday and Thursday he was to draft and type his Author's Note which was due today. I have not received it. Perhaps he just needs to share it with me on GoogleDocs? I would love to touch base with you via telephone about Ty early next week. Is there a day or time that works for you?
