Thanks [REDACTED] let's skip St. Barth then and just do Paris.
But in general, fur a short term schengen does not work for St. Barth, however if they give me a 6 months one like the last time, that would work then. We'll see..
Anyway, let's just do Paris for now then..
Thank you!

Hi Karyna...below is from our Amex rep re St. Barth's...please advise what you want to do about a hotel in St. Barth's ...our rep seems to think you don't need a visa for St. Barths' if you are getting a French visa? I recall having this issue last year....

All hotels in St. Barth are non refundable or 90 days cancellation policy. Why does she need St Barth reservation if she is going to get visa with Paris reservation? I believe same Schengen visa from St. Barth as France.

Also, there are no refundable fares to St. Barth's ...we can buy a ticket round trip St. Barth's today and then void tomorrow.
