I have called the Fairmont Waterfront and spoke with Chris (male) at the front desk...Your rooms on the concierge floor are reconfirmed and it is understood you will arrive tomorrow early....he will check you in tonight so you can enjoy the breakfast on the concierge floor if you desire. You can report to the Concierge floor (9th floor) to confirm your arrival and get your room keys...it is a more customized and private check in process. I reconfirmed a fan will be put in the room with the king bed (the other room has 2 queen beds...the rooms should be located close to each other)
Hope you have a great time!!!!
