Hi [REDACTED],

We are leaving the apartment now. Thank you for all your help. I left the mailbox key with the doorman. The apartment has been cleaned, but unfortunately I sent the sheets out to be laundered and they were supposed to be back yesterday, but... best laid plans. I asked Susan if she wouldn't mind picking up the linens from the doorman and leaving them in the apartment. I was going to put another set on the bed, but Susan said the housekeeper would be coming in anyway and she would make the bed. I am so sorry for that.

There are no words to thank Mr. Epstein for his kindness, but I will be sending him a card to express our deepest appreciation.

All my best,
Roberta Lehrman

Oh Roberta! I'm so happy you have had the apartment for this trying time!! I hope I hope you get to return to FL on Feb 3!!! Do keep me posted. We have our own maid and will get her to clean 10B after you leave...no worries there! As for an address to send Jeffrey a thank you...send to his NY townhouse again:

It has made a terrible situation so much more bearable. Can you suggest someone I can contact to arrange for housekeeping when we leave? We will try to leave the apartment exactly as we found it in July.
