Too bad - the cancer results were 'positive' so Randy has to have surgery again for the rest of his thyroid, Ugh! Of course he's all 'Upbeat' about it. He told me the results then hurried off to his Rotary Club meeting. Don't say ANYTHING! I want him to be the one who announces the results to the family, which I'm sure he will do later today (???) Anyway, I'm stressing over it - I was SO SURE that the results would go the other way - I'm really surprised 'cause he's so NOT sick! Oh well, we'll just deal with it. Love mom
