Hi Lesley -

I just wanted to check in with you about Ty's progress. We were to meet as a team last Thursday but I was out unexpectedly. We are planning to meet when we return from break. He may have mentioned that he took a computerized reading test today. We are will be looking at his results at this meeting. I will keep you posted.

Can you remind Ty to share his non fiction subtopics one, two and three with me? He is writing about fishing but I have not been able to edit his work. Thanks for your help.

Fondly,
Terri-Ann
