Hey Les,

I've just spent the morning with movers putting the furniture back out in 2G :) I was wondering if [REDACTED] had any time today to give it a once over, the dust from the new flooring is quite coating. And also the comforter and linens have been placed elsewhere. I was hoping she might have them in storage?

Just picking up the pieces. I hope all is well with you. And hope to see you this week.

Also, my iCloud email doesn't appear to be working. I'll let you know when that's back up. ♥☐ I've missed everyone!
